MAGAZINE'S OFFICIAL

NEW
VOL. II

Here's the sequel to the best-selling MAD Magazine's Official SPY VS. SPY computer game! The all-new Island Caper features both famous agents of "messpionage" parachuting onto a tropical island loaded with pitfalls - including a still active volcano.

Your objective is to locate the three buried missile parts, assemble them in the right order, and transport the now-armed polaris missile to the awaiting escape submarine. . . before the volcano erupts! Along the way, the Spies must dodge both natural and man-made booby traps including sharks, quicksand, snares, coconut bombs, jungle pits, and more. And of course, the two Spies continually engage in deadly sword fights.

GAME FEATURES:

- Player options allow you to play the computer or another opponent
- Simulvision™ split-screen action allows you to monitor the other Spy's movements, and react accordingly
- Simulplay™ feature allows both players to be active at the same time - No more waiting your turn
- Players construct their own booby traps from the elements on the island

Both MAD and SPY VS. SPY are registered trademarks of E.C. PUBLICATIONS, INC. Both are used by permission.

“BLEAK FOR THE FUTURE”

I loved your satire on the film “Back To The Future” but my father claims you published that article thirty years ago!

Roberto Santiago
New York, NY

I wish I could send your “Back To The Future” issue back in time... like, before I could read!!!

Loren Keller
Muscatine, IA

I think that Mort Drucker’s drawing of “Marquee” in “Bleak For The Future” (MAD #260) looks more like Martin Sheen than Michael J. Fox!

Andy Detrick
Arlington Heights, IL

Aren’t you the same guy who wrote to us a while back saying that in our “Apocalypse Now” satire (MAD #215, June ‘80) Mort’s Martin Sheen drawings looked like Michael J. Fox?—Ed.

Michael or Martin? You decide.

SPY VS. SPY VS. SPY VS. SPY...

Enclosed is an editorial cartoon about the current espionage scandal that’s going on. As you can see, it’s a topic you’ve been covering for years!

Paula Carswell
Oakland, CA

THE CHOKE’S ON YOU

As both an educator and an accredited Red Cross First Aid instructor, I was shocked and disgusted to see your “First Aid For The Restaurant Choking Victim” on the back of MAD #259. I feel this is an important subject which people need information on! What this poster actually shows is three perfectly good examples of how to KILL someone. Was the extremely slight amount of humor in it worth the damage and possible loss of human life that this negligent and irresponsible article could cause?

Nancy E. Munden
Lincoln, NE

Since you take our back covers so literally we’re looking forward to hearing how long it took you to build our new improved pooper scooper (back cover, MAD #261) —Ed.

“SICKY MINUTES”

I especially enjoyed your article “Sicky Minutes” in MAD #260. I am unfortunate enough to be black and living in North Carolina with Jesse Helms and Falwell lovers! Your article was right on target! I know it’s no laughing matter but I laughed anyway.

DaVinci Metcalf
Greenville, NC

THE LETTERS OF THE LAW

As I read Lou Silverstone and George Woodbridge's article "A Miranda Law For Everyday Victims" in MAD #260, I realized that I hadn't been read my rights as a MAD Magazine reader. Here's a suggestion:

"You have the right to read some classy magazine like Time or Newsweek instead;

If you give up this right, anything you read can and will seriously affect your funny bone.

You have the right to a conscience and to ask it why you're reading such ridiculous garbage!

If you can't afford the price of MAD, nothing will be provided to you at all!"

Jeffrey F. Mantei
Anderson, IN

You've got a lot of nerve insulting Bayonne in your article "A Miranda Law For Everyday Victims." I bet you haven't even been to Bayonne. It is the second safest and cleanest city in New Jersey and the 22nd safest and cleanest city in the United States.

Allison Fitzpatrick
Bayonne, NJ

Here are more interesting facts about Bayonne: It is the world's 4th largest producer of soot. Three out of the four most scenic toxic waste dumps in the U.S. call Bayonne their home. There are more clothing stores featuring the size "husky" in Bayonne than anywhere on the east coast. Finally, pathetic boxer Chuck "The Bayonne Bleeder" Wegner is from Bayonne but no one cares. Thanks for writing so we could share this information!—Ed.

A DOG OF A BOOK

My dog takes her reading very seriously. (She is currently halfway through "War and Peace.") I thought she might enjoy something educational and entertaining for summer. At first she was enthusiastic about her new book, "MAD's How To Be A Successful Dog," but last week I found it buried in the backyard.

A ROLLING STALLONE GATHERS EVEN MORE GROSS DEPT.

It may be some comfort to realize that while life is full of surprises, Rocky films are not! Each one plagiarizes the one before it and adds a corny twist of its own, like in this case, patriotism! So sit back and relax with something old, little new, something borrowed and something red, white and blue...

ROCK

Hey! Is this the beginning of "Rockhead IV" or the end of "Rockhead III"?

Probably!

I've seen every movie in the Rockhead series!

I saw just one, but I saw it three times!

Then we're even!

Yo, Atrium, the theme of the last film was "The Eye of the Tiger" because it was about courage! What's the theme of this film?

"The Rear of the Horse" because it's so stupid!

Do you think "Rockhead IV" will be as popular with the average "middle American" as the others?

No way! In this one he beats up a white guy!

That's him a few seats down! His name's Drecko!

ARTIST: MORT DRUCKER

Yo, Rockhead, know what day is today? It's my birthday!

Had I known, Bawly, I woulda dressed up for the occasion—I woulda had my undershirt sent out to get soiled and sweaty!

Here's the perfect gift for you, Bawly—a robot!

Yo, Mom, why is a robot the perfect gift for Uncle Brawly?

Because, Rockette, a robot doesn't have a sense of smell!

Look at how the robot just hangs around, an' how it don't expect nothin', an' how it don't complain when it gets punched out!

Big deal! I've been doing that ever since we got married!

Yes! It takes a while, so just let water run!

DISC-CLAIMERS DEPT.

Recently, there's been a lot of hullabaloo about whether or not there should be warning labels on record albums. After seconds of soul searching and carelessly weighing both sides of this important issue, we at MAD dare to say YES!! There should definitely be warning labels on selected discs!

So without any further ado

(except for the rest of this intro!), here are some...

Badly Needed WARNING LABELS for ROCK ALBUMS

WRITER: DESMOND DEVLIN

DANGER: Record company has tacked on one or two new songs to this collection of previously released material in order to force purchase of entire album.

CAUTION:
This woman may be as old as your mother.

DANGER:
Take ONLY in small doses. One song provides the daily adult requirement of pretentiousness.

WARNING: Contains good music and intelligent lyrics. As such, it may be unsuitable for today's listeners.

BEWARE: Not buying this album will cause extreme guilt.

CAUTION: Solo album by member of a hit group. One artist out of five means album is only one-fifth as good.

WARNING: Old material repackaged by greedy record company trying to milk helpless dead artist.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Richard M. Nix

Last night the school board officially turned down a request by the student council to allow the serving of beer and tequila in the cafeteria. The vote was seven to six.

Congratulations to Sophomore Nina Grabmore, who gave birth last night to a 6 lb., 5 oz. baby girl. Vice Principal Dinklebean says it's still not too late for the baby's father to come forth and make himself known.

Any student involved in sending Bif Sweeny's jock strap up the flag pole faces suspension if the jock strap is not removed by noon today.

Will whoever ordered the large pizza with anchovies please come to Vice Principal Dinklebean's office? Your order, minus two slices, has arrived.

We are happy to report that the five freshmen who suffered food poisoning in the cafeteria yesterday all had their stomachs pumped and are expected to make a full recovery.

on High School

The FBI will resume questioning students today regarding the illegal use of the school's computer to alter faculty members' IRS records. Your cooperation is appreciated.

Results of the state-wide reading test are in. Congratulations to Junior Ray Hanrahan whose seventh grade reading level was the highest in the school.

Good news! Drivers' Ed. lessons will resume next Thursday, just as soon as Mr. Walsh has the neck brace removed.

By order of Vice Principal Dinklebean, any student caught selling or using drugs on school property faces immediate suspension. This rule applies to faculty members as well.

The school photographer will begin shooting yearbook pictures Tuesday. The photographer says studded black leather clothing and purple and orange hair does not photograph well so please dress and dye accordingly.

KING KONG

WRITERS: SERGIO ARAGONES AND DON EDWING ARTIST: DON MARTIN

Thinking about what career to get into? Wondering whether or not you'll fit in? Well, here's the sixth in a series of tests designed to help you choose your future line of work. Mainly, discover your true abilities by taking...

MAD'S APTITUDE TEST NUMBER SIX WILL YOU MAKE A GOOD PSYCHIATRIST?

1. As a Psychiatrist, you suggest to a patient that sessions be daily instead of twice a week. This usually means that:

A. The credit check you ran on him came back positive.
B. She's gorgeous and sexy, so why shouldn't you get turned on as often as possible.
C. Your regular bridge partner has moved away, and you've suddenly got this free time to fill.
D. Any of the above.

2. From the pencil in his hand, we can tell that this Psychiatrist is:

A. Making progress in finishing the crossword puzzle he began during his first session this morning.
B. Finding out that he can draw a picture of Bugs Bunny from memory.
C. Calculating how much of a "cost-of-living" increase he can add to his hourly fee and still hold on to his patients.
D. Any of the above.

3. A woman patient confides that she carries on conversations with her St. Bernard, spends week-ends hiding in a closet, and is terrified of walking on linoleum. As a Psychiatrist, what do you say when she pleads for your advice?

A. "How do YOU feel about it?"
B. "I think you KNOW the answer to that already!"
C. "What is it you REALLY want to tell me?"
D. Any of the above.

4. Complete the following sentence: Running a Group Therapy session is helpful because _____.

A. Listening to patients arguing and screaming at each other provides wonderful entertainment.
B. One of the patients may come up with an insight that you were incapable of seeing by yourself.
C. Sitting back and playing God is a real kick.
D. All of the above.

5. A patient catches you falling asleep while he is pouring out a sob-filled tale of how he was ignored as a child. What is the proper response to his accusation?

A. "I was merely testing your reaction to MY ignoring you!"
B. "My powers of perception increase when I close my eyes!"
C. "Your hour is up!"
D. Any of the above.

6. From time to time you will ask a patient to describe his dreams. Listening to dreams helps you by:

A. Providing you with some swell stories that you can share with your fellow Shrinks at the next annual convention.
B. Giving you a chance to use impressive Shrink gibberish such as "suppressed anger," "unconscious urges" and "deep-seated ego manifestations."
C. Getting your patients off their real problems, which you can't figure out anyway.
D. All of the above.

7. Some patients become so dependent on you that they call you night and day with trivial problems. This should tell you that:

A. It's time to include a fee for "Telephone Consultation" in your bill.
B. You've got the sucker so strung out that he's hooked for another two years of treatment, at least.

other two years of treatment, at least.

- C. You can really get your jollies by busting his chops and putting him on "hold!"
D. Any of the above.

8. While interviewing a prospective patient, you suddenly learn that he is unemployed and without funds. What should you tell him?

A. "Learning to live with your problems is often preferable to going through the agonies of analysis!"
B. "You, I am happy to say, are what we Psychiatrists classify as 'normal!'"
C. "I think I should see you twice a week! With any luck, I may be able to work you into my schedule in a year or two!"
D. Any of the above.

9. After twelve years of therapy, a patient announces that he is making no progress and is quitting. Which of these is your most effective response?

A. "Impatience has always been one of your problems, hasn't it?"
B. "Quit if you wish, but I cannot take responsibility for the consequences!"
C. "I was waiting for you to get to this point! Now, we can really begin to work!"
D. Any of the above.

10. Eventually, of course, there comes a time when therapy is concluded. This usually happens when:

A. The patient's awareness of your incompetence overrides his need for your help.
B. The patient dies.
C. You die.
D. Any of the above.

SCORING

If you answered "D" to all questions, you have the ability to make a good Psychiatrist.

I'm Beaver Cleaner, although my real name is Thermidor! If you're wondering how a kid named Thermidor got to be called "the Beaver," join the club!

I'm Lardy Monjello, the Beaver's best friend! We've got a lot in common—we like to eat, we both wear baseball caps a lot, and we like to eat! Actually, I can eat a lot more, but sometimes the Beaver's "cute routine" makes me too nauseous!

I'm Ettie Hassle, Golly's best friend! I'm an obnoxious, insulting, creepy weasel! These personality traits have recently gotten me a part-time job at Vice President Nixon's election strategy headquarters!

Mom! Mom! Guess what happened to me on the way home from school!

First things first, Beaver! How about some milk and cookies?

But Mom—I saw an alien! From another planet! I even talked to him!

Hmmm... maybe the alien would like some milk and cookies...

The Real-Life, TELL-IT- LIKE-IT-IS Dr. Seuss

The story's for kids who once dug Dr. Seuss,
But now feel that his tales have no practical use;
So let's hope that these pages are more on the mark,
With rhymes by FRANK JACOBS and pics by BOB CLARKE!

This mixed-up young fellow is Gregory Green,
 Whose folks were divorced when he'd just turned 13.
 His Dad's very keen on a Waitress, Doreen,
 Once the wife of Eugene, who's now wed to Maxine.
 His Mom lives with Dean, on the outs with Eileen,
 Who brought home a Marine whom she met in Racine.
 Doreen has three kids, Elmer, Gus and Irene,
 And may soon have a fourth, if you know what we mean.
 While Dean has two daughters, Pauline and Francine,
 Also two sets of twins from his first wife, Colleen.
 If you now understand this bewildering scene,
 Then we hope you'll explain it to Gregory Green!

Great Gumballs! Whatever's the matter with Clarence?
 It's 7 p.m. and he can't find his parents!
 His face is as sad as a basset-hound puppy's,
 Which happens when parents are high-powered Yuppies.
 His Dad, if you please, is a very big cheese,
 Making millions in fees from long trips overseas.
 His Mom's on the go, a VP, don't you know,
 Pulling down lots of dough for a big TV show.
 Their faces young Clarence can barely remember;
 The last time he saw them was back in September.
 He's now so fed up with this lonely routine
 That he'd even trade places with Gregory Green!

Have you heard of young Benjamin Brilligan Beales
Who wanted to purchase his first set of wheels?
He eyed a used '68 Chevy Deluxe,
But the bank wouldn't loan him the 600 bucks.
Well, Ben really wanted that snaffulous car,
So he sold his Atari and old VCR,
His 53 tapes of The Boss and Madonna,
His album of stamps from Zimbabwe and Ghana,
His autographed pic of Sylvester Stallone,
His seven-speed bike and his Mickey Mouse phone.
When he counted the proceeds, he felt very grand,
Holding 600 bucks in his hot little hand.
Let's hope that young Ben isn't lacking endurance;
He'll need twice as much for the cost of insurance!

At the age of 15, Steven Sedgwick St. Surls,
Loves to spend his free time with available girls.
His buddies agree he's a stud who can make out
With any young lady he's chosen to take out.
Now Steven's an expert on sex and seduction.
He's read tons of books and he's taken instruction.
He's learned what to say when he's turning on chicks.
He's mastered the moves and he knows all the tricks.
He's learned how to fondle and how to caress—
Now all that he needs is a girl who'll say "Yes."

When Myron McGee was a small boy of 3,
 A contented, well-nourished young toddler was he.
 But when he turned 7, he learned folks had died
 From cholesterol, starches and foods that are fried.
 At 10, he was told that caffeine is a killer,
 That salt makes you ill and that fats make you iller.
 At 12, he heard peas cause a dreadful disease
 Like the one people get from raw oysters and cheese,
 Not to mention sclerosis from pork, beef, and lamb,
 And the threat to your kidneys from green eggs and ham!
 Today it's no wonder that Myron looks thinner.
 With worries like these—wouldn't you skip your dinner?

Zum-Ziggity-Zokkity-Zillory-Zoun!
 The rock group, Dried Meatball, is coming to town!
 Run lickity-split, 'cause they'll play ev'ry bit
 Of their Top-Forty hit, "When The World Turns To Spit!"
 Samantha Sue Skooper and Robert Ray Ricketts
 Have waited all night for the 20 buck tickets.
 They shiver, they quiver, but never complain
 Though they're chilled to the bone from the cold and the rain.
 More than 17, boring, long hours have passed
 When Samantha Sue shouts, "Hey, they're open at last!"
 They take out their money, so thrilled they could burst—
 And learn that the scalpers have gotten there first!

MIRACLE DIP DEPT.

There's a syrupy, sickeningly sweet television show on the air that exploits the sick, elderly and needy. It's about a goody-two shoes angel who reforms non-believers and restores their faith by spouting a few well-worn clichés in each episode. It's true he may be showing them the road to salvation, but he's leading the rest of us down a...

My name is Yawnaton Snit. I'm an angel! I go from place to place brightening people's lives by telling them that every cloud has a silver lining... that it's always darkest before the dawn... that into everyone's life, a little rain must fall... I could go on, but I promised the American Diabetes Foundation that I'd limit my sugar-coated clichés to six per minute!

I'm Murk, a crusty, clichéd, heart-of-gold buffoon. It is written, "We are all created in the image of the Lord"! Yawnaton says in my case, the Lord made an exception!

I'm the Flying Nun! I'm here to remind us all of how TV used to treat religious subjects—with respect, dignity and good taste!

I'm a cute, loveable child with some horrible disease! As Producer, Michael Landon uses me in most episodes to inspire hope and guarantee tears. But since MAD refuses to stoop that low and use me in their satire, I'm just going to die right here! Gasp!

I'm God. Michael Landon and I have a deal. I get to do bit parts on his show, and in return I grant him miracles—like letting this show be a hit!

What's wrong with Yawnaton's hair?!? It's styled three feet over his head!

That's to hide the halo he wears under it!

Why doesn't Yawnaton go to where he's really needed—like Iran?

Iran! Never! It's full of Arabs and Ayatollahs! There are some things beyond even God's power!

HIGHWAY TO HEAVING

Yawnaton, we don't have a cent! How in Heaven's Name are we going to survive this week???

The Lord acts in strange ways, Murk!

You act in strange ways, too! But how is that going to get us any money?

See, I told you we'd get money! Twenty straight wins in that Bingo game!

But what about those poor people in there? How could the Lord gyp them so badly?

The Lord had nothing to do with it! I worked out a deal with the pastor of the church. We split everything 50-50!

ARTIST: MORT DRUCKER

WRITER: DICK DE BARTOLO

Where are we off to this week, Yawnaton?

I don't know, we'll just drive along until—wait! I think we're needed there!

But that's a saloon!

I know, but something about the name of the place is attracting me!

Wow! The audience thinks that kid is fantastic!

Don't be so sure that applause is for the kid! A rerun of "Little House On The Prairie" just came on the TV in the bar!

Listen, kid. You heard the applause and screaming for encores after you performed. I'll level with you. You're average. But I'll take a long-shot and put you under a 200-year, iron-clad absolutely unbreakable contract.

Gee, under contract, I don't know.

Maybe you'd prefer being an underground rock star?

You mean playing small select clubs?

No, I mean an UNDERGROUND rock star! Like Elvis!

Gulp! "under contract" sounds great!

The percentage will be the usual 15%.

Well, at least that's fair! I'll gladly give you 15%!

Wise up! The 15% is for you! Here, sign this!

OOPS!

Sorry I slipped!

We're cooks. We'd like to work for you.

Soul Food! But we also make a mean Angel Food Cake with Miracle Whip!

Bite your tongue!

Who in God's name are you?

What's your specialty?

Hmm. Different! You're hired! What the hell!

Mr. Ripoff, now that I'm under contract, can I have an advance on my salary? My family missed one rent payment in 25 years and we now face eviction!

That must be some rotten landlord!

I'm the kid's landlord! He failed to say that I already gave him one extension!

Yes, but two hours isn't much help!

Sure, throw my generosity back in my face!

You see, my father's out of work. I go to school during the day and sing here at night and work week-ends as a janitor and my grand-mother has a horrible disease...

OK! OK! I appreciate your trying to cheer me up! I'll give you another two hour extension!

I see you have plans here for a nursing home! Then you're not the horrible person everyone says you are!

Those are the OLD plans for the Varicose Lane Nursing Home, which I just bought. These are the NEW plans to turn the home into the Dickey Gambling Casino!

Mr. Ripoff, what makes a man think he can buy anything he wants, ruin any life he wishes and not be stopped?!?

The same thing that makes a man own, write, produce, direct and star in his own TV show: EGO!

Well, that's where we differ! You have a distorted ego! Mine is perfect!

Yawnaton, this guy is mean and rotten! A real SLEAZEBAG!

Murk, that's an awful way to speak! There is good in everyone and it's our job to find it! So we're going to have to hang around that mean rotten sleazebag Ripoff until we do!

Do you really think God pays special attention to your work, Yawnaton?

Yes, I do! Sometimes I can't exactly put my finger on why I feel he watches over us, but I sense inside he does!

How is it going, kid?

Great! My first album went gold in two days!

Are you at least getting your 15%?

No, Mr. Ripoff says my 15% goes toward paying for publicity, ads, greed, extortion...

There's more to show biz than you realized, Billy Joe!

Ripoff, I've been going over your books. You pay your help $1.00 an hour. That's illegal!

They have to be paid illegally, you fool! They're illegal aliens!

Big problems, Yawnaton! I'm supposed to be on TV tomorrow and I don't have any costumes!

I'm not so sure about that! A big suitcase full of costumes was just misrouted here, some 3,000 miles from its intended destination.

Wow! That's a miracle!

Not really! Airlines do stuff like that all the time!

These are great costumes! I just wish they had something for a boy!

Cute, real cute, Boss! Next week, your part is gonna be even smaller!

Those costumes worked for Prince and Boy George!

So far, you've made five million dollars from Billy Joe Bob and he's earned $53!

There must be something wrong! How did he come away with that kind of money?!

You know, if Billy Joe ever got out of his contract, you'd be in big trouble!

OK, how about clause 1432: "This contract can be cancelled by Billy Joe, without penalty during an elephant stampede on Thursdays at 1 PM."

You made a slip! Well... actually I made a slip, 13 panels back. See for yourself. Call it a miracle!

Go ahead, try and find a loophole!

How'd that get in there?!!

Well, I can't worry about a stupid clause like that!

GOOD AFTERNOON. IT'S THURSDAY, 1 P.M.

Not only are you flat, Mr. Ripoff, but you're flat broke! Now the shoe is on the other foot! A fool and his money are soon parted! Let he who is without sin...

HELP! HELP!

Don't worry, The elephants won't come back!

I didn't mind the elephants! It's this lunatic and his sickening clichés! I think I'm gonna barf!

OK kid, you're out of your contract. All the money you made is yours. And somehow the IRS got hold of my books. I'm broke and without a job.

What? After the way I treated you?!!

I say, "Forgive and forget"... "Turn the other cheek"... "He who is without mercy..."

Oh no! Another convert! HELP!

You can come work for me!

Where to next, Yawnaton?

The Boss just gave me the address of another creep who's exploiting the problems of people for profit.

But Yawnaton, this is YOUR address!
